- Funded the production of a website resource for presenters to assist in the development of community engagement. Additional funding from the Department of Canadian Heritage.
- WEBSITE RESOURCE CELP
- Developing a resource – currently design phase is over, and now finalising the content, case studies and other area's. To be launched in September 2016
- Workshop roll out of the website Fall 2016

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

- Arts presenters and artists have an opportunity for a new transformative role in their communities. In addition to our usual presenting activities, developing a community engagement approach can deeply immerse our organizations into many more aspects of community life
- The CELP website is the tool presenters asked for
- To assist with ideas, planning, explanation, examples, inspiration and useful resources
- To guide through the various aspects of community engagement
